Mel's Makeup Finance Policies & Procedures

I need your assistance. One of our clients, Melissa Murray, has asked us to assist her in managing her outstanding accounts receivable and implementing a debt recovery plan.

Background

Melissa is the managing director of Mel's Makeup Pty Ltd. Mel's Makeup operates five (5) retail stores across Australia and plans to expand to all states within the next two (2) years. Mel is aware that several staff changes have recently occurred in the accounts department, resulting in longer-than-usual delays in chasing overdue accounts. So that she can focus on tasks that are core to her business, she has asked us to review her current account receivable processes, chase up any overdue accounts and recommend an effective management strategy moving forward.

I have attached Mel's Makeup Finance Policies & Procedures. While undertaking your review, please check that her policies and procedures relating to reconciling and monitoring financial accounts and her credit policy are being followed internally.

Melissa has provided copies of the following document:

- Bank Statement March 2021
- Cash Receipts Journal Mel's Makeup March 2021 (Tab 1, A2 Excel Workbook)
- Accounts Receivable Subsidiary Ledger (extract) Mel's Makeup March 2021 (Tab 2, Excel Workbook)

I need you to:

a. Check the attached invoices and adjustment notes to ensure they have been posted correctly to the accounts receivable subsidiary ledger.

Use the snipping tool to capture a screenshot of any error you have identified and any adjustments you have made to correct the errors. Paste the screenshots in the table below.

b. In line with Mel's Makeups Bank Account policy, reconcile the transactions in the cash receipts journal to the transactions listed on the March 2021 bank statement.

Using the attached memo template, draft a memo to Melissa notifying her of any errors you identify.

Include:

- a screenshot of each error
- a short description of each error
- a suggested source document that she could review to check the accuracy of the receipt and resolve the errors.

(Approximately 200 words)

- c. Check payments to the accounts receivable subsidiary ledgers have been posted correctly. In the table below:
  - explain any posting errors you identify.
  - describe what action you would take to investigate these errors.

(Approximately 40 - 60 words per error)

Kind Regards,

Andrew Black
